TWELVE OAKLAND STAKES

T. H. WILLIAMS ANNOUNCES CONDITIONS OF FIXTURES FOR CALIFORNIA SEASON.

Events to Be Renewed Include Races That Figured Prominently in the Popularity of Racing on Pacific Coast-Values $1,200 to $2,500

San Francisco, Cal., August 31.—President Thomas H. Williams of the New California Jockey Club has made public the conditions of the twelve stakes that will be run during the coming winter season of racing at Oakland track. The stakes are all of the guaranteed type and range from $1.000 to $2.500, most of them carrying $1.200 and $1.500 values. The list is made up of eight handicaps, two selling stakes, the Waterhouse Cup and the California Derby. The latter carries the maximum value of $2,500 and will be decided on Washington's Birthday, as usual. The Opening Handicap, the Thanksgiving Handicap, the Crocker Selling Stakes, the Lissak Handicap, the Andrew Selling Stakes and the Palace Hotel Handicap are other popular fixtures figuring prominently in the annals of Pacific coast racing that will be renewed. With a proper response from the horsenen, the re-establishment of these time-honored stakes will do much to help along the rehabilitation of racing in California and the restoration of the prestige and popularity of the-turf on the coast. The full list of the stakes to be opened, with their conditions and dates of running, is as follows:

Opening Handicap, $1,000, for all ages, 1 mile.

YEARLINGS WORK WELL AT LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, Ky., August 31.—Smart work marked some of the juvenile trials at Churchill Downs to day. George J. Long, the Louisville member of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, was out to consult trainer Coyne as to entries for the Lexington and Louisville stakes, which close today, and incidentally to see the trials of several of his year-lings that trainer Coyne is handling. The bay colt by Sir Huon—Rinda, and a half-brother to Sir Cleges, worked a quarter in 25, while the bay colt by Batts—Watoma and the brown colt by Alvescot—Madeline went a quarter that was timed by Mr. Long and trainer Coyne in 24, and which was caught by some of the trainers as fast as 233.

Shelby West did some smart work with a trio of J. B. Newman's two-year-olds. Spalding, a Kentucky Derby candidate of 1911, worked a quarter in 24 pulled up, and impressed horsemen greatly, owing to the fact that he resembles no little his grandsire, the mighty Hanover. Trainer West also worked the chestnut filly by Fidelio—Miss Jackson and a brown filly by The Elector. The first named went three-eighths in 363, the first quarter in 235, while the latter worked three-eighths in 37. Both are entered for the Golden Rod Stakes here this fall.

Ed McCloskey arrived today with his Scottsburg are entered for the Golden Rod Stakes here this fall.

Ed McCloskey arrived today with his Scottsburg winner, Sandy Hill, but he is here only temporarily, as he goes next week to Mayfield, Ky., where they hang up a $400 purse as the chief attraction. Willie Brannon, who rode the son of Bute at Scottsburg, will go over to Mayfield to ride the horse for Mr. McCloskey. Sandy Hill will be returned here to run at the state fair races as well as at the coming meeting at Churchill Downs. He is credited with being an improved horse. Mayfield is planning to have quite a pretentious lot of racing next week. Several of the trotting events having failed to fill. running races will take their place. It is figured that during the week ten or more races will be run. They are also preparing to introduce the pari-mutuel form of betting.

The entries which closed here today for the ten stakes to be run at the fall meeting will easily total over 300, an average of from thirty to thirty-five per race. Up to this morning 250 nominations had been received by Secretary Davis and the mails will continue to bring in other nominations until the end of the week.

LATONIA AUTUMN STAKES TO CLOSE.

To admirers of the thoroughbred it is pleasing to note that Kentucky autumn racing has been given added dignity and importance by the institution of stake races to be run at the approaching Lexington. Louisville and Latonia meetings. Heretofore the fall racing at those points has been for purses only. The general public is much disposed to take things at their apparent face value and could not be blamed for appraising such meetings at the low standard of importance attached to them by their own officials and managers. People who are fond of racing will be sure to note and appreciate the higher standard now established and it is not unsafe to predict that the clubs will all be well repaid for their enterprise in increased receipts.

The Latonia Jockey Club's contribution to the new movement is in the form of eight stakes to close for entries at midnight of Saturday, September 3, 1910. They are all of the guaranteed value style and under the conditions now governing racing should appeal strongly to owners and be awarded generous patronage. These offerings of the Latonia Jockey Club are:

For three-year-olds and over—

NOVELTY WINS THE FUTURITY FOR S. C. HILDRETH

Result of Race Clinches Winner's Supremacy Among Two-Year-Olds of 1910. Increases S. C. Hildreth's Stable Earnings to $146.685 and Advances Kingston to Head of Stallion List.

she ran third. James R. Keene received $2,500 as the breeder of the first and third horses, whose dams, Curiosity and Truelove, he had nominated for the race.

Novelty's victory not only settled the question as to his supremacy among the American two-year-olds of the present season, but it had the effect of advancing his sire, Kingston, to the head of the list of American stallions for 1910 to date in amount of money earned by their progeny. It also increased S. C. Hildreth's stable winnings for 1910 to $146,685, a truly magnificent showing considering the present condition of the American turf. That Novelty is a star of the first magnitude there can be no question, and it is evident that he will be a fitting successor to his illustrious stable companions, Fitz Herbert and Dalmatian. His winnings to date aggregate the splendid total of $72,630, which assures him the honor and distinction of first place among the money-winning thoroughbreds of this year in America.

Never in the history of racing in Saratoga has there been such a crowd on the picturesque old track as that which cheered Novelty to victory. It was a crowd of enthusiasts and as the field swept through the stretch there was a mighty roar that continued until the last borse had passed the winning post. On the return of the sturdy little champion to the scales he was given an ovation and it is doubtful if there ever was a winner of this the most coveted of all two-year-old races that was more heartily acclaimed after he had won. It was a race worthy of the best traditions of the Futurity and was won by a colt that by his previous heroic deeds had made himself the most popular horse that raced during the long Saratoga meeting.

While the Futurity has been a richer stake in the more prosperous years of racing, it has lost none of its value to real sportsmen who place the possession of a good horse above the value of the purses they may win and who delight in a struggle for the glory of conquest. Under the conditions of the sale, when Mr. Hildreth purcha

Saratoga, N. Y., August 31.—Novelty stamped himself the best two-year-old of 1910 when he was winner of the Futurity Stakes of the Coney Island Jockey Club, which was run today for the first time in its history over the course of the Saratoga Association by special arrangement on account of the premature closing of the eastern racing season with the running of today's card. The race was worth $\frac{3}{2}\frac{4}{4}\frac{3}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2

Love-Not for second place, while the others were strung out, with Bouncer the one to pull up last.

Before coming to Saratoga Novelty demonstrated on various occasions that he was a good colt, but it was not generally considered that he had much chance in the Futurity until he had proved his high class by his victories in the Saratoga Special and the Hopeful. He is easily the largest money-winning horse of the season and Mr. Hildreth announced after the running of the Futurity that he would retire the colt for the year.

The Futurity, of course, was the one big race of the day, though there was plenty of interest in the other races. Unfortunately, the steeplechase resulted in a walk-over, the first of the season, when Hylda, Liberty Lass and Jesuit all scratched away from Thomas Hitcheock, Jr.'s Stoure. The latter was ridden to the post by jockey Lynch and was not required to go over the course.

August Belmont's Priscillian was winner of the opening dash and Hampton Court won the third race easily for S. C. Hildreth.

Occan Bound reduced the track record one-fifth of a second when she won the mile handicap easily in 1:37\(\frac{2}{3}\) and at the end of the program Belfast was winner over a big field of maidens for H. P. Duryen. Priscillian, in winning the opening race, reduced the track record for seven-eighths of a mile from 1:24\(\frac{2}{3}\) to 1:24\(\frac{2}{3}\). All in all, it was a day that provided a most fitting finale to the eastern racing season of 1916 and it may truly be said that the end came in the proverbial blaze of glory.

CLIFF EDGE WINS PURSE AT WINDSOR UNDER SENSATIONAL CONDITIONS

Refuses to Break with Others of His Field, but Is Sent After Them and Scores-Second Horse Is Disqualified.

Detroit, Mich., August 31.—Richard E. Watkins' Clifford colt, Cliff Edge, figured in another remarkable exhibition at the Windsor track this afternoon when he beat a good band of handicap horses after being virtually left standing flatfooted at the post. It takes a pretty good sort of a horse to win from any sort of company under similar conditions and the fact that Cliff Edge beat the good lot he did this afternoon makes his race stand out as the best witnessed over any of the Canadian tracks this summer.

Cliff Edge was favorite, was ridden by Lang and came in for strong support. He was standing straight when the barrier was released, but propped when the others left the post. One of the assistant starters struck him with his whip and Lang went after the others in what looked to be a hopeless chase. He was a distant trailer rounding the first turn and not until after they had gone three-quarters of a mile did he loom as a contender. Lang took the outside route with him and in the stretch, where he caught Fort Johnson, the latter bore out and grade of the contisted fence. Cliff Edge nided Cl Edge to the outside fence. ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

F. A. S., Cincinnati, O. Emma G. was "out" to

C. R., Chicago. The parlay lost. Only the horses amed count in parlays,

R. M. S., Cleveland, O. The bet won on Frances ay and was void as to the Carman entry.

Bryer, Kalamazoo, Mich. Polar Star ran and was unplaced. Cannot say as to show price.

George M., Dorchester, Mass. The bookmaker makes his own limits and whatever he declares them to be must be accepted as correct.

O. J. N., Middletown, O. If the bookmaker operates under the rule that added starters run for his book the parlay lost. Otherwise it won.

John B., St. Louis, Mo. No account of the matter is kept. You can reach a conclusion for yourself by noting results through a month or so.

N. D. K., Sycamore, III. The maker of the paralay on Frances Ray to show, Firm Foot place and Flying place was entitled to a return of $12 for each dollar bet.

J. A. S., Chicago. In such an obvious case of cheating you would be justified in giving each man his money back and refusing to have anything more to do with them.

J. M., Cincinnati, O. Sir Huon's next race after winning the Latonia Derby was for the Queen City Handicap at Latonia, which he also won. He was then taken east to Sheepshead Bay and in his first race there ran unplaced to Flip Flap, Whimsical and The Quail in the Advance Stakes.

IMPROVEMENTS AT MARLBORO PARK.

C., August 31.—It is now an assured thing that the management of the Mariboro Park race track will race under the rules of the Jockey Club, Many improvements have been made to the plant at Mariboro, Md. The stands have been rebuilt so as to accommodate the large, attendance that is looked for during the meeting. There will be seven jumps in the short course through the field, with nine for the long course.
